Autoharp virtuoso Adam Miller performs at Everett Public Library

EVERETT, WA – Folksinger, storyteller, and autoharp virtuoso Adam Miller will perform a free concert at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 23, at the Everett Public Library, 2702 Hoyt Avenue in Everett.

One of the premier autoharpists in the world, Adam Miller is a renowned American folksinger and natural-born storyteller. An accomplished folklorist, historian, musicologist, and song-collector, he has amassed a repertoire of over 5,000 songs. Miller accompanies his rich, resonant baritone voice with lively finger-picking acoustic guitar and stunningly beautiful autoharp melodies. A masterful entertainer who never fails to get his audience singing along, Miller has distinguished himself as one of the great interpreters of American folktales and folksongs. His performances appeal to audiences of all ages.

Based in Oregon, Miller travels 70,000 miles each year and has performed for over a million students in school assembly programs. He has appeared at the Walnut Valley Bluegrass Festival, the Tumbleweed Music Festival, the Traditional Music Society's Summer Solstice Festival and the Kentucky Music Weekend.
