

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jan. 6, 2020

CONTACT

Mindy Van Wingen, assistant library director, Everett Public Library, 425-257-8021

Yangsze Choo is available for media interviews. Contact Library to coordinate.

Bestselling novelist Yangsze Choo to speak at Everett Public Library

EVERETT, WA – A dancehall girl, an orphan boy and a Chinese superstition about men who turn into tigers. You're invited to an unforgettable evening with Yangsze Choo, author of "The Night Tiger."

Yangsze Choo will appear at the Evergreen Branch of the Everett Public Library, 9512 Evergreen Way in Everett, for an after-hours presentation on Sunday, Jan. 26, at 7 p.m. This program is free and open to the public.

The Friends of the Everett Public Library will host a special reception with the author at 6 p.m. at the Evergreen Branch library. Tickets to the reception cost $16, and the price includes light refreshments and a paperback copy of "The Night Tiger." Tickets may be purchased in advance at nighttiger.brownpapertickets.com or at the door.

Yangsze Choo is a New York Times bestselling author of two novels. Choo is a fourth generation Malaysian of Chinese descent and a graduate of Harvard University. Her first novel, "The Ghost Bride" (2013), is currently in production as a Netflix Original series. Her second novel, "The Night Tiger" (2019), was selected as a Reese Witherspoon x Hello Sunshine Book Club Pick in April 2019 as well as Amazon's Spotlight Pick for Best Book of the Month in February 2019.

Copies of Choo's books will be available for sale and signing following the presentation. For more information, please call 425-257-8250 or visit the Library's calendar of events.

###

/DocumentCenter/View/1975/20200106_Cchoo