“Paris Never Leaves You” author Ellen Feldman to offer virtual reading and presentation

EVERETT, WA – Everett Public Library will present a free online program with Ellen Feldman, the author of “Paris Never Leaves You” and several other novels. The program will take place on Tuesday, Aug. 25 at 6 p.m.

Moving between wartime Paris crushed under the boot of the Nazi Occupation and 1950s Manhattan giddy with postwar abundance and optimism, “Paris Never Leaves You” is the story of one woman’s struggle to save her infant daughter and herself. “Paris Never Leaves You” has been named a CNN “Best Books” pick for August 2020.

Ellen Feldman, a 2009 Guggenheim Fellow in fiction, is the author of seven novels. In addition to fiction, she writes articles on social history and has published numerous book reviews and blogs. She has lectured extensively around the country and in Germany and England. Feldman lives in New York City and Amagansett, New York, with her husband and rescue terrier Charlie.

Copies of “Paris Never Leaves You” may be borrowed through Everett Public Library’s curbside library service or as e-books and e-audiobooks. Books may also be purchased through Third Place Books and other bookstores.

The author program is a live virtual program. Guests will need a device with internet connectivity to participate. There is no fee to attend, but registration is required. To register or receive more information, visit the library’s Facebook page or events calendar or call 425-257-8000.
